This to certify that CMS Collaboration at CERN is collaborating with Benemérita Universidad Autónoma de Puebla (BUAP), Puebla City, Mexico, with a program of R&D and production of CMS Muon RPC detectors for installation in the Phase-2 Upgrade of CMS for HL/LHC operations. The BUAP is an official member of the CMS Collaboration. This collaboration implies receiving material from CERN to Mexico and sending material from Mexico to CERN.

We also certify that any of the materials to be shipped or received are meant for scientific research only and that they are non hazardous and have no commercial value.
