We shall soon find out how many of the 16 former players will make better referees! How so?

Well, for one, it was a BBC report about trailblazing -- <https://bit.ly/4cYVJoV>.

And what is more, it is a PL-funded collaborative effort between PFA and the powers that are at PGMOL will

🌱 Insights from the SDPI Webinar on Green Industrialization and SEZs 🌐

The recent SDPI webinar featured esteemed experts discussing how Pakistan's eco-industrial parks, with a focus on green innovation, sustainable development successes. Here are some key takeaways:

✅ Building Eco-Industrial Parks:

Mustafa Hyder Sayed: Green finance, research, and infrastructure development for eco-industrial parks. Identifying optimal locations and ensuring scalability are

✅ Lessons from China's Low-Carbon Zones:

Prof. Dr. Peng Wang: Guangdong Province serves as a model with its green manufacturing advancements, and robust carbon peaking policies.

✅ Addressing Pakistan's Challenges:

Prof. Dr. Saeed Badshah: High initial costs, policy inconsistencies, and infrastructure gaps hinder renewable energy (RE) adoption in SEZs. However, RE can offer long-term cost efficiency and align with SDGs.

✅ Opportunities for Growth:

Dr. Muhammad Abid: Pakistan can leverage its potential through regional cooperation, joint R&D, and community-level green initiatives. Learning-by-doing is key for energy transitions.

✅ Eco-Industrial Transformation:

Commodore Dr. Imran Ul Haque: China's SEZs demonstrate how environmental standards, circular economies, and policy alignment drive green transformations. Pakistan must consolidate policies and tap into global green financing opportunities.

✅ Strategic SEZ Development:

Dr. Erfa Iqbal: SEZs under CPEC hold immense potential, but progress requires collaboration between BOI, SIFC, and the Pakistan Army. Green supply chains and a one-stop service for investors are in the pipeline to make SEZs
